

Your vehicle has been towed

Your vehicle has been towed by United Tows, LLC, for illegal parking on this property. The operator of this business has contracted with our company to provide this service in order to provide parking for his regular customers.

The employees of this business are not responsible for your vehicle being towed, nor can they call our office to ask that it be returned.

The only way to retrieve your vehicle is to come to our storage facility (see map on back) and pay the towing fees.

You will need your drivers license, the make and model of the vehicle, and license plate number.

The towing fee for this vehicle is $XXX, payable in cash or by credit card. An ATM is located at our storage facility.
